

Product Design Framework

This is the core framework used for solving Product Design case studies.

Overview:

End-to-end product thinking covering user research, wireframes, prototypes and PRDs. Each case documents how I move from ambiguous problems to shipped features.

Generated for Arsalaan Mohammed Portfolio